

Terrie Jones to Join Leadership Atlanta Class of 2007

AGSI Founder and Chairman to become a part of the prestigious annual leadership development program

ATLANTA (April 24, 2006)—AGSI, a management and technology consulting company, today announced that Terrie Jones, Founder and Chairman, has been accepted to Leadership Atlanta's Class of 2007. This highly selective program accepts a limited number of accomplished executives for an intensive, year-long program of personal and professional development.

Since 1970, Leadership Atlanta has brought together 2,300 high potential executives from a range of industries. It is the oldest continuously running training program of its kind in the country and remains a driving force behind many of Atlanta's most successful leaders and activists. Only 70 applicants were accepted for the Class of 2007.

The 2006 Leadership Atlanta Class includes well known members of the business community such as James Dallas, Georgia Pacific, Suzanne Sitherwood, Atlanta Gas Light and Kirsten Kliphouse, Microsoft. Candidates were evaluated on previous leadership experience, commitment to the community and demonstration of potential for growing personally and effecting change.

“Over the past 25 years, Terrie's passion, leadership and commitment have made her a driving force, both within AGSI and the Atlanta community and we are proud that her accomplishments and potential were recognized through her acceptance into this elite group,” said Gregg Fellows, CEO, AGSI. “The benefits and relationships she will carry away from this experience will enable her to continue to make a positive impact as part of a great tradition of leaders who have emerged from Leadership Atlanta.”

About AGSI

AGSI is a Management and Technology Consulting company headquartered in Atlanta, GA. Founded in 1981, AGSI helps enterprises develop, build, and operate processes and technologies that deliver sustained shareholder value and growth. AGSI partners with its clients for long-term relationships based on the company's core values of Integrity, Quality and Partnership. On the web at agsi.com.

#####